Council of the DZNE

The DZNE Council consists of the German Federal State and the "Laender" where the partner centers are located and is chaired by a Federal Government representative. The Council oversees the activities of the DZNE and reports to the Federal Government and the State Governments. The fundamental structures of the DZNE are determined by the Council: firstly, it holds responsibility for all decision-making concerning amendments to the DZNE constitution; secondly, its approval on all medium to long-term strategic planning (and planning focus) is required. Furthermore, the Council decides on all membership issues, such as the affiliation or separation of partner institutes and the convocation and dismissal of the executive board and transactions, particularly those of substantial financial significance. The Council meets twice a year.
